Number 5. in a series of "go to's"

Go to Fifth Avenue for window-shopping.

But come to Columbus for the people.*

* Over a million of them ... with $7.6 billion to spend*, and 30 major shopping centers (and a vigorous Downtown) to spend it in. In fact, Columbus' average per-capita retail sales are higher than Cleveland's, Cincinnati's, or Dayton's. (And 34% higher than New York County's.)*

You can reach these serious-minded shoppers in The Columbus Dispatch and Citizen-Journal. Be sure to ask about TMP—Total Market Penetration. For more information, just call us at 614/461-5204. Belden readership studies are available.

WHO GAINED?

ALLENTOWN, PA.

There are 7 Metro Areas in the Philadelphia A.D.I. Philadelphia has lost population since 1971. One guess as to which of the others has enjoyed the biggest population gain: that's right, ALLENTOWN! With over 33,000 new residents, Allentown's population has increased almost twice that of the other metros. Only one newspaper reaches the growing Allentown market . . .

Wondering Where To Test Your New Product?

A telling look at the 27 most frequently used test markets

Volume II

Are you questioning market testing methods, cities, demographics? Are you confused by reports on past product tests and are now considering your own time consuming research to find the market that is right for you?

Maybe you didn't know that the reliable information and documented statistics that you need are already available in an updated study that covers such topics as:

—Why Test
—How To Set Up Your Test
—How to choose your market based on:
1.) Market Size
2.) Demographics
3.) Media Availabilities
4.) Media Isolation
5.) Control & Audit

This study also includes valuable data on the 27 most popular test markets and how they compare to the national profile in population, effective buying incomes, retail sales, demographics, and ADI and SMSA costs, coverage and ratings for broadcast and print media.

This free brochure includes all of the above information plus much more. Send in the coupon below to receive your copy.

The Bulletin Newsroom

We can be bought.

And we were. There's a new management story at The Bulletin and we're moving fast as the new "Great Things" newspaper in town. But our leadership in the 4th largest market is an old story. We're out in front by more than 110,000* daily readers and leading the pack in "at home" audiences—58% of all shoppers who read newspapers at home (where buying decisions are made) read The Bulletin . . . 63% of all households with incomes over $20,000. And, 86% of all Bulletin readers are shoppers who read at home.

But as good as we are, we're getting better. Making changes. Expanding features and formats to match the excitement of a city and region on the move. Like our great new daily page, Atlantic City Report. Philadelphia's got America's newest playground right in its own backyard, and no one else is covering this action like The Bulletin. And our all-new graphics. And a bigger People section. And a bigger, better Business section. And a vigorous new way to cover Sports that includes the slickest, most streamlined sports scoreboard anywhere. And a new four-section format that's more convenient. And a unique commuter weather report for shuttle cities to Philadelphia. And that's just the beginning.

There's no question about it: We can be bought. Buy us today! Call Walter Holt, National Sales Manager at (215) 662-7545.

Taking a Bite out of the Memphis Market

After years of apples to oranges comparison, Mid-South advertisers can now compare our newspapers' reach to that of broadcast on an apples to apples basis. Memphis Publishing Company has the means for a polished media comparison — a refined approach to wise buying decisions for the Memphis Market. And the information we're providing decision makers really gets to the core of the matter — that newspaper is your best pick in the Memphis ADI — reaching 69% of ADI adults in a 5-day period.* You can bet our fresh data on reach and frequency is upsetting some long-standing apple carts. We're working to make newspaper the apple of every media buyer's eye.

For further information, call Perry Williams, Research Manager, Memphis Publishing Company, 901-529-2226.

You have to be on your toes to reach the right people.

The Dallas Morning News has what it takes to keep you in step with up-scale demographics. We reach the pacesetters. The people who want more out of life and read the paper that can help them get it. That's why we have more readers than the evening paper in the important income brackets — $35,000 and up, $25,000 and up, $20,000 and up, $15,000 and up. More college graduates, more professional people and more who own or manage businesses and more homeowners. The trend-setters and influential community leaders. More of the people advertisers want to reach. We prove it year after year in ad linage, circulation and demographics. We keep the numbers while the competition keeps dragging its feet.

The Dallas Morning News
That extra edge

The world's business speaks many languages . . .

Present-day sales executives need to know how to reach potential markets both home and abroad in media that speak directly to their interests. That's why, in the E&P International Year Book, you'll find listed not only U.S. and Canadian daily and weekly newspapers, but daily newspapers all over the world, professional and special service dailies, college and university newspapers, U.S. foreign language newspapers, and much more.

If you need to know about newspapers, you need "The Encyclopedia of the Newspaper Industry." $35 a copy.*

STANDARD METROPOLITAN STATISTICAL AREAS

STANDARD METROPOLITAN STATISTICAL AREAS definitions were first developed and issued for use by all Federal agencies compiling general purpose statistical data. The definitions made it possible to make better comparison of population, housing, employment, trade and industry statistics. State and local governments, as well as private industry, soon found these definitions most useful.

The Office of Management and Budget considers economic integration as well as the metropolitan character of the counties, communities and towns in determining the standards and criteria established for SMSA designation.

Generally conceived, a Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area is an integrated economic and social unit with a large population nucleus.

In November 1971, a revised set of criteria were released by the Office of Management and Budget.

A Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area always includes a city (or cities) of specified population which constitutes the central city and the county (or counties) in which it is located. An SMSA also includes contiguous counties when the economic and social relationships between the central and contiguous counties meet specific criteria of metropolitan character and integration. An SMSA may cross state lines. In New England, SMSAs are composed of cities and towns instead of counties.

1. Each Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area must include at least:
    (a) One city with 50,000 or more inhabitants, or
    (b) A city having a population of at least 25,000 which with the addition of the population of contiguous places, incorporated or unincorporated, have a population density of at least 1,000 persons per square mile and together constitute, for general economic and social purposes, a single community with a combined population of at least 50,000, provided that the county or counties in which the city and contiguous places are located has a total population of at least 75,000. (This criterion replaced a previous one which referred only to "twin cities" with a combined population of at least 50,000.)

In addition to the county (or counties) containing such a city (or cities), contiguous counties are included in an SMSA if, according to certain criteria (somewhat revised since previous definition), they are socially and economically integrated with the central city.

2. A contiguous county will be included in a Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area if—
    (a) At least 75% of the resident labor force in the county is in the nonagricultural labor force, and
    (b) At least 30% of the employed workers living in the county work in the central county or counties of the area.

3. A contiguous county that does not meet the requirements of Criterion 2 will be included in a Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area if at least 75% of the resident labor force is in the nonagricultural labor force and it meets two of the following additional criteria of metropolitan character and one of the following criteria of integration.
    (a) Criteria of metropolitan character.
        (1) At least 25% of the population is urban.
        (2) The county had an increase of at least 15% in total population during the period covered by the two most recent Censuses of Population.
        (3) The county has a population density of at least 50 persons per square mile.
    (b) Criteria of integration.
        (1) At least 15% of the employed workers living in the county work in the central county or counties of the area, or
        (2) The number of people working in the county who live in the central county or counties of the area is equal at least to 15% of the employed workers living in the county, or
        (3) The sum of the number of workers commuting to and from the central county or counties is equal to 20% of the employed workers living in the county.

The SMSA title always includes the names of the state or states that are included in the SMSA, the name of the largest city (it might include several cities—as many as three), all dependent upon relative and minimum populations of the central city and other cities in the SMSA.

In New England, the requirement with regard to a central city as a nucleus still holds, but the units comprising the area are towns rather than counties. The county (or town in New England) is the basic statistical unit. Since smaller areas are used, a density of at least 100 persons per square mile is used as a measurement.

When two or more adjacent counties each have a city qualifying under Paragraph 1 above and the cities are within 20 miles of each other (city limits to city limits), they will be included in the same area unless there is definite evidence that the two cities are not economically and socially integrated.

If two or more adjacent counties each have a city qualifying under Paragraph 1 above and the cities are more than 20 miles from each other (city limits to city limits), they will not be included in the same area unless there is definite evidence that the two cities are economically and socially integrated.

The forgoing digest of criteria established for qualifications of Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas will serve most purposes. The complete criteria can be obtained directly from the Office of Statistical Policy, Office of Management and Budget, Executive Office Building, Washington, D. C. 20503.

STANDARD CONSOLIDATED STATISTICAL AREAS

STANDARD CONSOLIDATED STATISTICAL AREAS always include two or more contiguous Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas which meet the following criteria of size, urban character, integration, and contiguity of urbanized areas:

1. One of the SMSAs has a population of at least 1,000,000.
2. At least 75 percent of the population of each SMSA is urban.
3. The sum of the number of workers commuting between the two SMSAs is equal to:
   (a) at least 15 percent of the employed workers residing in the smaller SMSA, or
   (b) at least 10 percent of the employed workers residing in the smaller SMSA, and
   (1) the urbanized area of a central city of one SMSA is contiguous with the urbanized area of a central city of another SMSA, or
   (2) a central city in one SMSA shares the same urbanized area with a central city in the other SMSA.

The title of a Standard Consolidated Statistical Area includes the name of the largest central city in each SMSA plus any central city of 250,000 or more, except that in no case does the area title include the names of more than three central cities. The cities shall be listed in the order of the population size of the SMSAs with which they are associated. A regional title may be substituted for the title determined by this criterion.

Boston-Lawrence-Lowell, Mass.-N.H. Includes Boston, Mass. SMSA; Brockton, Mass. SMSA; Lawrence-Haverhill, Mass.-N.H. SMSA; Lowell, Mass.-N.H. SMSA.

WE COUNT THE PEOPLE WHO COUNT – YOUR CUSTOMERS

AS A CORNERSTONE for its economic survey and forecasting services, Marketing Economics Institute maintains a comprehensive library of information on the composition and change of U.S. industrial and consumer markets. MEI's nationally recognized team of professional demographers and economists update the county, city and city part files of the library on a continuous basis.

The timeliness and accuracy of the data reflect the attention to detail at local market level made possible by MEI's exclusive system of monitoring activity in all U.S. counties, more than 2,250 cities and towns and in the 40,000 key industrial plants which annually account for 80% of value added by U.S. manufacturing. The resources of the library are made available to regular clients on a contract basis, but individual files may be purchased singly by business planners and research specialists with specific needs. Marketing Economics Institute will provide any of these county data files on IBM cards or magnetic tape or will aggregate the data to custom designed client market area format.

MARKETING ECONOMICS will be happy to discuss how its exclusive demand/supply approach to sales analysis and its wide range of statistical techniques can be used to measure and forecast sales for your product lines.

The markets we serve now represent almost $27 billion in retail sales, and our growth in this category continues to far outstrip that of the U. S. as a whole.

Why? Because we look for markets where the growth potential is the greatest.
